

Who Elected You It Wasn't Me
 I Don't Agree With Anything You Believe
 You Sold Out A Long Time Ago
 It's Too Bad The World Never Know
 Your Job Is Worthless And Costs Too Much
 Defend Yourself Lawyer If You Must
 For All The Lies You Hide In Your Past
 Selling Our Souls And Charging Us
 To Get Them Back
 You Forgot This Is Our Country
 We're Not Gonna Let You Do That Did It, Didn't You
 You Know You Did
 You Took Away The Lives We Want To Live
 With The Stroke Of A Pen
 From Your Coward Hand
 You Write The Laws
 That Don't Forgive Our Sins
 Just More Rules And Regulations
 To Make Sure You Always Win
 Hide Behind Your Walls
 That Are Many Elements Thick
 Walk The Walk Speak The Talk
 Tell The World Your Bullshit
 The Duty You Fill
 Is For Your Own Personal Gain
 One Of The King's Court Today
 Tomorrow King
 For Now We're Both Players
 And I'm Still A Pawn
 But If You Think You're Untouchable
 Then I Think You're Sadly Wrong
 Your Punishment Come Now
 I Am The Executioner And The Reaper
 Your Destiny, Salvation And Your Savior
 For It Is Me That Will Deliver You From Evil
 Payment For Your Sins
 Justice To The People
 Its Time To Go
 Watch The Trigger
 Die For Your Sins
 Corrupt, Lying Senator

YOU'RE JUST A POLITICIAN
 The main cause of all the corruption
 You take us to the point of devastation
 So you can win another election

Try to explain the situation to me
 You don't even know what you really need
 The pain we feel will never go away
 Try to live with it one more day

Too quick to choose a new life to live
 You left the old one too early to forgive
 I'll forget it easily to get you back
 Cause you're the only thing I want

Misery...has taken control of me
 Misery..has stolen my soul from me

Don't push me away,
 for I'm not done
 The battle I fight has only begun
 Your tears tell the story,
 That your eyes won't show
 Don't push me away,
 I'm not ready to go

Did you think you could escape
 Deep down from the eternal pain
 That destroys your life just the same
 It leaves you paralyzed benched from the game

Run away from the thoughts you're feeling
 Stop & count the hearts you're breaking
 If you think it will finish peacefully
 I'm sorry, but you're sadly mistaken

Misery... has taken control of me
 Misery.. has stolen my soul from me
