

*You deserve so much from this world.
It's hard to make it for any little girl.
To strive & achieve is the accomplishment of dreams.
To beg & plead is all it will ever seem.*

*No one can help you, but yourself.
It starts with intelligence, that's the wealth.
Put in the hours of hard work & pain.
Don't trip the line and go insane.*

*You have the power within your mind.
To finish anything you will ever try.
So shut your ears and close your eyes.
It's time to put on another disguise.*

HEAVENLY, THAT'S YOUR NAME
BEAUTIFUL GIRL, DON'T EVER CHANGE
SILENTLY, YOU SCREAM IN PAIN
YOU WERE MY WORLD, ISN'T IT STRANGE

*Listen to yourself, you know what's best.
Don't pay attention to all the rest.
They pretend to know.
They pretend to believe.
But they can't explain, what it is they see.*

*It's your choice and not your fault.
but it is your problem, when you get caught.
You didn't start the battles, you have to fight.
but you have to excel, survive the night.*

*Patience my child, you will learn.
All the lessons the world lends as it turns.
When you close your eyes and awake,
A new life you will partake.*

*Simply to the point
I can only see you
Everywhere I go
Whatever I do*

*Nothing changes
But the desire to be by your side
To listen to your troubles
Your serenity when you cry*

*I cannot help the feeling I feel
I cannot stop the thoughts I think are real
When I close my eyes
They do not go away
They simply magnify my fears and pain*

*Simply to the point
No one else there will ever be
No one will ever touch again
My serenity*

*I shared it once
But never again
Will anyone have the chance
To call themselves a friend*

*The sound will never stop of the voice I hear
So sleek and defined
it can bring me to tears*

*So seductive and wild
I cannot deny
The feelings of passion
I'm forced to hide
Wanting to touch
I can only cringe
to the thoughts
of never touching you again*
